

Hatch Happenings

VOLUME 3, ISSUE 3

FALL 2011

Mike Moran

FROM THE DIRECTOR

Although it's later than usual this year because of our very busy September, I'm happy to present this new issue of Hatch Happenings, a newsletter from the Hatch Library to the Bay Path community published three times a year. In it you'll meet the library staff on all three of our campuses and learn the latest news about the full range of library services and resources that we offer our students, faculty, and community.

Whether you're a traditional undergraduate, a One-Day student, a graduate student, an online student, or any combination of the above, I can't urge you too strongly to take advantage of the many ways we can help you get the maximum value from your Bay Path education.

You'll find that the Hatch Library's web site - the "Hatch Virtual Library" - includes a wealth of useful and user-friendly information and that our highly skilled librarians on all three Bay Path campuses can help you navigate the challenges of doing your research assignments 7 days a week almost year round.

In staff news, we're happy to welcome two new part-time Reference and Instruction Librarians to the Hatch Library staff: Eric Warren works on Thursday evenings, and Jean Maziarz works on Sunday afternoons until the end of October, when she'll switch to Sunday evenings.

Both Eric and Jean also have full-time day jobs. Eric is Systems and Reference Librarian at the Springfield Technical Community College Library, and Jean is Youth Services Librarian at the Storrs Library here in Longmeadow. Each brings a wealth of varied experience and knowledge with them to the Hatch Library, and both also live in Longmeadow.

Jean Maziarz

Eric Warren

CIRCULATION & RESERVES SERVICES

Diane McDonald

Welcome to Hatch Library's circulation desk. Bay Path students, faculty and alumni, as well as students and faculty from CCGS (Cooperating Colleges of Greater Springfield, a network of area colleges) may borrow items from the Hatch Library's circulating collection. ID's are needed to borrow from Hatch. Books circulate for three weeks; DVDs and videos circulate for one week. You can renew by phone (413-565-1376), and you will soon be able to renew online.

The library does not charge fines for overdue materials. Borrowers are, however, responsible to pay for any materials they don't return. Bay Path students must return all borrowed materials before the end of each semester. Failure to do so will result in a library block being placed on your college account. Blocked students do not have access to grades or transcripts as well as registration.

The circulation desk is also where faculty place items on reserve. These items are usually for library use only and require a college ID. To find a list of items on reserve go to baypath.worldcat.org, mouse over Search and select the Course Reserves link. You can then search for items by title, course name or number, or instructor. The library now has a large number of textbooks for core courses on permanent reserve for use in the library. Search our catalog to see if we have a particular title.

BREAKING NEWS!

Sandy Cahillane

⇒ Have you checked out our newest research database yet? "ProQuest Central is the largest multi-disciplinary, aggregated, full-text database available in the market today. This product is a compilation of 28 of ProQuest's most important and most utilized databases. In addition, ProQuest Central contains a huge amount of content found across more than 40 other specialized ProQuest databases, making this the broadest single research product anywhere in the world." Give it a try and let us know what you think.

⇒ Watched any good dvds lately? Why not check out some of our latest releases including: Fast Five; Bridesmaids; Hanna; Super; Beastly; and In a Better World.

JUVENILE COLLECTION

The Juvenile Room at Hatch Library, located on the second floor of the building, contains a collection of juvenile books that support Bay Path's education and child development classes. Here you will find books to fit every stage of reading development. Among them are a wide selection of books that have won the American Library Association's Newbery Award and Caldecott medals for children's literature.

Our teaching resources in the Juvenile Room do not consist only of children's literature. If you are a teacher of young children (or are studying to be a teacher), check out the material in our Excellence in Teaching Resource Center (or ETRC), also located in the Juvenile Room. You will be amazed at the resources that are available for you to promote active learning in the classroom and enhance your lessons. Whether you are planning a lesson in science, history, literature, math, or any other specific topic, we have many tools which can assist you. Come and explore the lesson plans, project/arts and craft ideas, games/learning activities, themed kits, and other educational materials that can be used in the classroom to inspire young students' learning.

In addition, be sure to check out our monthly children's displays. This month we are featuring children's books by award winning authors Douglas Florian and Denise Fleming.

Eleni Hogan

Rachel Alter

EXT098: INFORMATION LITERACY SKILLS

This fall, we continue to offer a free online course – open to all – on Angel, called Basic College Information Literacy Skills. Its aim is to increase students' success in all areas of their academic work. Students are invited to complete as many or as few of the course activities as they want or need, depending upon what things they might be learning for the first time, or simply reviewing.

Two units in the course will build students' expertise in searching everything from the Hatch catalog, through the amazing array of databases we have available, to the Internet itself (yes, we can suggest ways to be a smarter shopper when it comes to websites, too!).

From there, students will explore the issue of ethical use of information: citing sources and academic honesty. A unit that addresses the various forms of presenting work – writing papers, creating slide shows, etc. – follows, and the course wraps up with an overview of study skills and critical thinking. We are excited about getting as much student feedback as possible, so that we can continue to fine tune the course to meet student needs.

Kathleen Staron

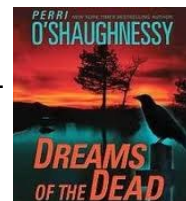

Irene McGarrity

NEW AUDIOBOOKS

007 Carte Blanche: the new James Bond novel by Jeffery Deaver - In the newest James Bond novel, Agent 007 has been given carte blanche to do whatever it takes to fulfill his mission.

Dreams of the Dead by Perri O'Shaughnessy - Nina Reilly is plunged back into the center of a murderous family game, and reawakens the very nightmare she had every reason to believe was dead and buried.

The End of Everything by Megan Abbott - When 13 year old Lizzie's best friend, Evie, goes missing, Lizzie won't rest until she finds out the truth behind Evie's disappearance.

Temptation by Nora Roberts - Socialite Eden Carborough didn't expect running a girls' camp to be easy...nor did she think she'd, literally, fall into the capable arms of the camp's next door neighbor, apple orchard owner Chase Elliot.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY HATCH HAPPENINGS BLOG!

The Hatch Happenings Blog has been up and running for a year now, and we are celebrating its first birthday! We post Literary Birthday and Book Review columns, along with updates from our suggestion box.

As much as we love blogging, we are still waiting to hear from you, Bay Path students, faculty, and staff. We are sending out a call for comments! We'd love to hear your thoughts about a particular author or a movie suggestion. We'd also love to get requests for future blog topics. Librarians tend to know a little bit about everything, and we love doing research, so please let us know if there is any person, place or thing you'd like to know a little more about; it will give us something new to blog about!

Please feel free to send your suggestions via email or to simply add them to the suggestion box by our popular DVDs.

WHAT'S NEW(S) AT THE CMC?

Tanya Semo

Welcome to all new students and welcome back to all returning students!

As you have heard, the Hatch Library has officially moved to its new online catalog Worldcat Local -- be sure to check it out. If you need assistance familiarizing yourself with the new catalog, please contact me; there are a lot of great new features.

As always, I am available on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 4:30 to 8:30 and on Saturdays by appointment. Feel free to contact me with any of your library needs – I am here to help you have the best, most successful, educational experience possible.

Contact: tsemo@baypath.edu or 508-248-5088

WHAT'S NEW(S) AT BURLINGTON?

I hope everyone had a nice and relaxing summer. I want to welcome everyone back, especially all of the new students who are starting this session.

Some of the many services I offer are:

Tutoring- where I can help you with proof-reading papers, brainstorming ideas for a paper topic, or studying for a test

Individual research assistance both in person and via email (tvingo@baypath.edu)

Database searching and website evaluation

Special Events: Book Swaps and Poetry Reading

Faculty - I am also available to come into classes for all types of library instruction. Assistance requesting materials from the Hatch Library in Longmeadow for delivery to your door.

Assistance requesting interlibrary loan materials

Return interlibrary loan or Hatch Library materials to me. There's no need for you to ship them back.

I am at the Burlington campus on Saturdays from 6:30am to 5:30pm and Tuesdays, from 4:00pm to 8:00pm. My hours are posted on the Burlington Electronic Bulletin Board and on the window of the Burlington Campus library. I can always be reached at tvingo@baypath.edu during the week.

Please let me know if there is anything I can do to help you, and I hope you all have a wonderful semester!

Tracy Vingo

CMC: (508) 248-5088

BC: (781) 272-0222 ext. 3025

INTERLIBRARY LOAN SERVICES

Have you ever been working on an assignment, diligently searching Bay Path's databases, when you come across a citation for the perfect article, only to find that you cannot access the full text? It's frustrating, and, chances are, at some point it'll happen to you. But we at Hatch Library can help. We can get the text of that article for you using interlibrary loan, or ILL.

Michele McGrath

The ILL process begins with a student's request for a book or article unavailable at our library. Through ILL, that material is provided to Bay Path by another library. We get materials for our students from libraries not only in our region, but from all over the country. As part of this cooperative effort, Bay Path also lends items from our library collection to libraries across the US.

There are several ways that an ILL request can be initiated:

In many of our databases, you can click on a direct link to an electronic ILL Request Form, offered for any article that is not available in full text.

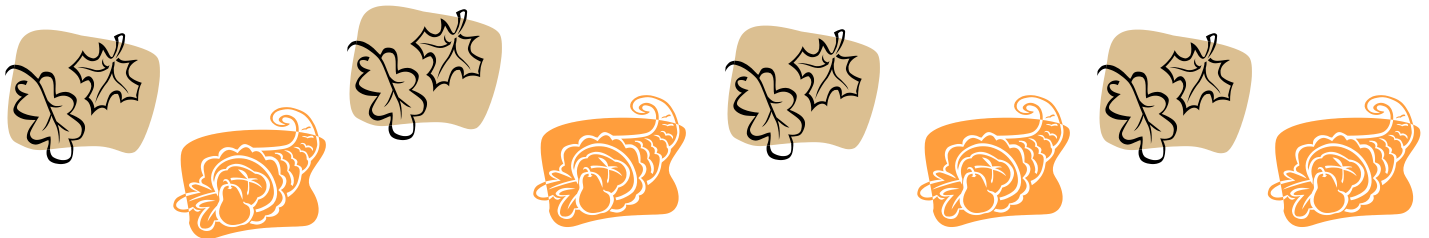

On the library's home page, you can find links for this same electronic form in three more places: the Hatch Virtual Reference page, the Faculty Services page, and the CMC/BC/Distance Learning page.

You can send an e-mail to our ILL e-mail account, <ill@baypath.edu>, making sure to include as complete a citation as possible in your message.

Here at Hatch, you can fill out an ILL request in hardcopy; forms are located next to the Reference Desk.

When making a request, please keep in mind the timeframe this process requires. We ask for a minimum 10-day lead time when requesting materials. ILL is a multi-step process, involving staff at other libraries, and, unfortunately, there's little we can do to speed up the turnaround time.

If you're new to using our ILL services, the staff at Hatch Library is happy to answer your questions or assist you with making ILL requests.

Bay Path College
Hatch Library
539 Longmeadow St.
Longmeadow, MA 01106
Phone: (413) 565-1376
Fax: (413) 567-8345
E-mail: library@baypath.edu

Library Hours
M-Th 8 a.m. to 10 p.m.
Fri 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
Sat 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.
Sun 1 p.m. to 10 p.m.
Hatch Virtual Library
<http://library.baypath.edu/>